Looks like the Ban on Savitabhabhi is pretty hard on the Savita Bhabhi fans. Department of Telecommunications asked all Indian Internet Service Providers to block access to savitabhabhi.com few weeks back and to fight the ban, many bloggers, twitters raised their points to save Savita Bhabhi. Ever since the site was banned, the man behind the site-Puneet Agarwal who chose to be known in the name of Deshmukh has sought the help of Savita Bhabhi's fans, asking them to file a Right to Information request to find out why the website has been singled out among the plethora of pornographic websites.

There was also a campaign site called SaveSavita.com which showed the Savita Bhabhi fan boys a way to access full Savitabhabhi.com using proxies and sites similar to savitabhabhi that showed Savita Bhabhi episodes archives. But now everything is going down hill.

Puneet Agarwal come out in open, but only to realise that he cant carry forward the campaign. ``Dear Savita Bhabhi supporters. It is with a heavy heart that I have to announce that I will be shutting down the Save Savita campaign and everything associated with it," Agarwal, who earlier went by the pseudonym 'Deshmukh', said in a statement released on the Save Savita site.

"I will be taking down all links and posts subsequent to releasing this statement," Agarwal said . "I apologise for any inconvenience caused to bloggers/tweeters that are linking to the content on the Save Savita website."

Do you think this is the end of the most famous Indian Porn Cartoon Character? Do you think SavitaBhabhi.com will survive without Indian audience traffic?
